IS A NOTARY REQUIRED?

A Notary is highly recommended. If this document is not notarized and signatures do not appear to match, a notary will be required by us to approve.

WHO MAY NAME OR CHANGE THE BENEFICIARY ON A POLICY?

Only the owner of an insurance policy may change the beneficiary. If an irrevocable beneficiary has previously been named, we must have his or her signature on the change form also.

If the owner of the policy is a Trust, the signature(s) and title(s) of the trustee(s) are required.

If the owner of the policy is a corporation, partnership or business, two company officer signatures and titles are required (President, Vice President, Secretary, etc.).

If the owner of the policy is a sole proprietorship, the sole proprietor must sign.

If the policy has a joint owner, they must also sign. If your plan is a Qualified 403(b) Annuity, your spouse must sign.

WHO MAY BE NAMED AS A BENEFICIARY?

The beneficiary may be one person, more than one person, a Trust, a corporation, or any other entity which will be able to obtain legal receipt of the proceeds of the policy or contract.

If this is a Qualified Plan, beneficiary changes may be restricted by IRS regulations.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A PRIMARY BENEFICIARY, CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY, AND A TERTIARY BENEFICIARY AND HOW ARE PROCEEDS ALLOCATED AMONGST MULTIPLE BENEFICIARIES?

The Primary beneficiary is the party who will receive the proceeds of the policy when the insured passes away. The owner of the policy may indicate, by percentage, how the proceeds are to be divided among the parties. If no indication is made, then the proceeds are divided equally among the primary beneficiaries. A primary beneficiary is required on this form, even if changing a contingent or tertiary beneficiary.

The Contingent beneficiary will receive the proceeds if the primary beneficiary(ies) should pass away before the person whose life is insured. Unless otherwise provided, the contingent beneficiary will only receive proceeds from the policy if all of the designated primary beneficiaries have predeceased the insured.

The Tertiary beneficiary will receive the proceeds if the primary beneficiary(ies) AND the contingent beneficiary(ies) should pass away before the person whose life is insured.

HOW DO I NAME A TRUST AS MY BENEFICIARY?

Provide the name, date, and address of the Trust where indicated on the Beneficiary Change form.

Trust documents will be required in order to process a claim on this policy. If you would like us to keep a copy of the Trust documents on file, please send a copy to us. Certificate of Trust, if applicable, can be accepted in lieu of Trust documents.

If the Trust named is a Testamentary Trust, please indicate this on the form and do not include a Trust date.

CAN I NAME MY CHILD AS A BENEFICIARY?

If the policy owner wishes his or her children to receive life insurance proceeds, the children themselves can be named. However, because benefits are payable to minors in only certain situations, it is recommended that a Trust be established to their benefit. To name a Trust as beneficiary for minor children, we need the name, date, and address of the Trust.
